wedded bliss

THESE NORTHSIDE HIGH-SCHOOL SWEETHEARTS TIED THE KNOT 13 YEARS LATER IN A CEREMONY THAT BALANCED THEIR LOVE OF VINTAGE IN A MODERN SETTING.

REBECCA HART, 28, and Andrew Newman, 29, met in Year 7 but didn't become a couple until Year 11. While living in Canada, Andrew surprised Rebecca with a romantic weekend in Montreal and a proposal. They tied the knot at St Andrew's Anglican Church, South Brisbane and celebrated with 115 guests at GoMA with all planning by The Little White Wedding Company. The duo will enjoy an around-the-world honeymoon this year.

Best part of the day? Rebecca: "Being able to enjoy the day knowing The Little White Wedding Company's team were always a few steps ahead".

The dress? Rebecca wore an Alfred Sung satin gown from Canada. Her bridesmaid wore a custom-made dress.

The cake? Sweetums Designer Cakes made the three-tier chocolate and fruit cake with latte and ivory icing.

The flowers? The bride carried mixed roses from Divine Flowers.
